SOCCER 1970

The 1970 Saint John's soccer team finished its season with an 8-7-2 record. This record includes four post-season, exhibition games, and earned the team a third place finish in the Catholic League. Saint John's played the top teams in the area, and had many contests that were decided in the last seconds. The Pioneers were one of the most respected teams in the Worcester area, and certainly one of the strongest.

The overall leading scorer for the Saint John's booters was Ken Carlson, who pounded home 14 goals and added 9 assists. Second in scoring was Mike Koomey with 10 goals and 3 assists. Seniors Joe Johnson and Gil Markarian scored 7 and five goals respectively, a positive effort toward the SJ cause.

Co-captain Johnson's fine foot and dribbling ability made him one of the area's finest and most respected players. Gil Markarian's speed and aggressiveness was also a team asset.

The fine halfback line of co-captain Tom Bagley, Al Gianntonio, Brian Barnatchez, John Lucey, Paul McMahon and Mike Pingeton kept the SJ booters strong at mid-field.

Rich Lawlor, Bob Jackel, Brad Barker and Steve Tonnelli held the duties of the halfback, while Bob McGrath, Dave Murray, and Dave Putnam shared the action in the goal.

First year coach Robert Bradley could have begun the 1970 football season with a very optimistic outlook, and rightly so. This year's squad was packed with an abundance of talented seniors and aggressive underclassmen, but injuries and tough breaks seemed to be destined for this team. After finishing the season with a 3-5 record, many people would consider this team a loser, but if a winner has courage, guts, desire and pride, Saint John's is a winner in anyone's book.

The biggest losses came as a result of injuries to co-captain, two way performer Andy Donohue, and quarterback John Hislop. After he was converted from tight end, Bob DeFlavio took over the chores of quarterback, doing a fine job with many times an undermanned backfield, due to injuries. Saint John's received outstanding performances from running backs Tony Salerno, co-captain Bruce Kopka, Joey Marzilli, and Lev Kachedorian. The many times forgotten offensive line was spearheaded by hard nose performers like Ed Savage, Pete Rist, Mike Nixon, Mike Sullivan and especially, split end Tom Cummins. The Pioneer Defense proved to be the pride of the team as seen in the heroic loss to rival Saint Peter's. Led by John Penny, Kopka, Kev Loughlin and Bill Kitteridge, these kids really showed their courage.

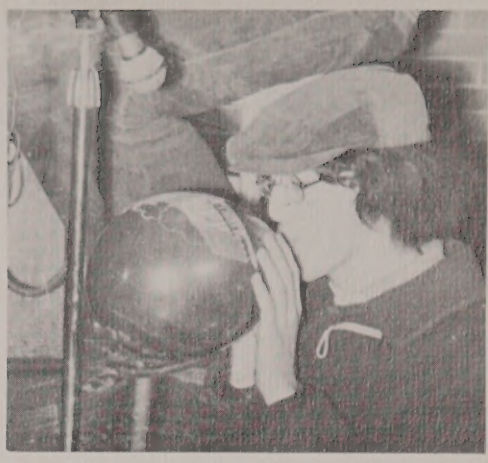
Quarter . . . Informal 25 Cent Happening



The constant attempt to achieve more nights out of the house was aided by the development of a new social phenomenon at Saint John's. A very casual, cafe style gathering came to be known as everything from a drop-in center to an informal rap session. The admission price and the name, both rising from the same idea, gave birth to the Saint John's Quarter. Entertainment was spontaneous, as we saw groups such as The Okeefenokee Gang Busters Trio & Friends Ltd. take the stage. Other well-knowns included Judy, and The Gross National Product: The American Bandstand. The biggest attraction remained however, and that was simply the people who were there. Saint John's own Larry Sheehan, Joe Keenan, and Ed Sweeney were there on subsequent Quarter nights, bringing the crowds musical warmth in an escape from the cold winter nights.

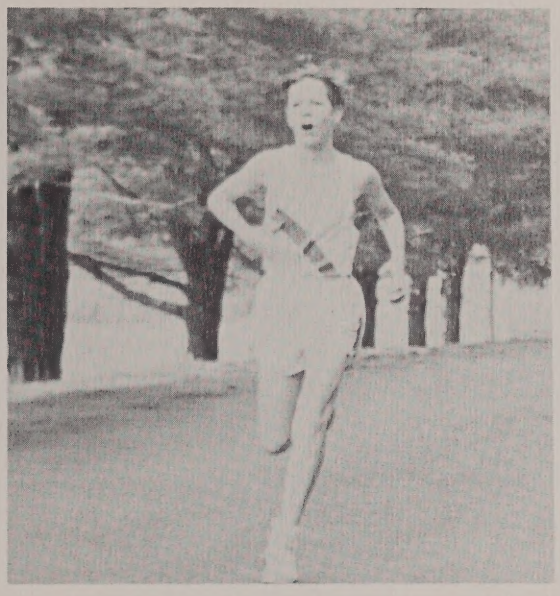
This year, Saint John's tried to bring in a variety of entertainers to musically satisfy as many people as possible.

The straight rock-and-roll enthusiasts were well pleased with the local talent of Albatross. Those who preferred a little brass tempered with their rock, were generally pleasantly surprised by the music of the Confiscated Doorknob, from the Fitchburg area. Worcester's own Fate drew a large crowd of rock lovers, which numbered nearly 700 at a mid-winter dance.

The great Spice, a rock group from Hampton Beach, returned to kick off our Spirit week dance.

All the fall dances proved to be recreational and financial successes, for which we thank the hard work and services of the Dance Committee.

Loneliness



Of The Cross-Country Runner

Although many people do not realize it, Saint John's has a Cross Country team. Thanks to the determination of the top ten runners, the spirit of the non-scorers, and of course the dedication and influence of Coach Brother Fintan, the team was able to finish the season with a tremendous 10-1 dual meet record. This record enabled them to maintain the Catholic Conference Championship.

Led by Chris Keenan, Fran O'Connell, and Bob Bertrand, the Pioneers were a threat in every big meet that they entered. Adding to the power of these three were Steve Dorsey, Gerard Foley, Jim Corrao, Ed Wirtanen, and Ed O'Malley.

Individual honors should go to Chris Keenan and Fran O'Connell. Chris showed his ability for running by setting the Barlin Farms Course record, and also the Auburn High Course record. Besides these, he also holds the new St. John's Course record.

Fran O'Connell was not able to run for most of the season because of a kidney ailment. But when he did compete, he rounded back into his old form quickly. Fran was the holder of the old St. John's Course record.

As a result of having lost five starters and several veteran substitutes from the 1969-1970 District III championship team, as well as highly successful coach Joe Lane, Saint John's was faced with, in the 1970-1971 season, the possibility of experiencing its worst season in over a decade. The general pre-season consensus, it seems, was merely a question of whether Saint John's would win more games than they lost. The Sunday morning cage – quarterbacks, however, overlooked a few important facts. Too many people did not stop to consider the capability of first year mentor, Mr. Charles Bibaud, the desire and finesse of returning seniors, and the courage of the less experienced underclassmen.

In looking back at the highly successful and respectable 15-6 regular season record, many thanks must be given to the coaching staff of Mr. Bibaud and Mr. Granahan, as well as the entire squad, having produced a superlative effort. With a fine crop of returnees and members of an undefeated Junior Varsity Team at hand, Saint John's will surely continue its basketball supremacy in future years.

Hockey 1971

The Saint John's hockey team of 1971 had its best finish in the Central Massachusetts Hockey League. They finished in second place in a close league, which shared first place three ways. A strong desire to win and overall teamwork were characteristic of this year's team. Led by the standout goal tending of senior Bill Collins, the team was able to finish the season with an overall 6-10-1 record. From the scoring point of view, the team was led by Bob Turcott, Dave Temple, and Bill Kitteridge, all of whom will be returning next year. The fact is, Saint John's will only be losing three seniors: captain Bill Collins, Tom St. Thomas, and John Dolan. For the future: Auburn had better watch out; Saint John's will be aiming for the number one spot. Coach McGoldrick will probably be able to get more sleep before the games; he will definitely rest easier after the games! Good Luck to the 1972 team . . .

Indoor Track — Ready To Go In 1971

Coached by newcomer Brother Stephan Comeau, the 1970-71 Indoor Track Team compiled an impressive and record-filled six and two season. Co-captain Dave Baril, top point getter for the S.J. couriers, was outstanding in both the Shot Put and the 300 in which he set a new school record at :38.0 seconds, Jim Corrao outdid numerous competitors in the 600, and, as a result, qualified for state trials held at M.I.T. during which he set a school record of 1:21.7. Along with Jim, Pete Coz excelled in the High Jump. Undefeated in the 1000, Chris Keenan added to his perfect season by becoming the State Champ at Boston Garden in a record time of 2:20.3. The Relay Team made up of Pete Coz, Joe Biedrzycki, Jim Corrao and Chris Keenan surpassed a previous school record running a fast 2:34.6. Co-captain Gerry Foley, Fran O'Connell, and Steve Dorsey dominated the 1000 and the mile run respectively, while Kevin Nelson, Jerry Powers, and Pete Coz competed in the High Hurdles. Bob Checola, Ed O'Malley and Ed Wirtanen each contributed to his given event in making for a successful Indoor season.

. . . Spring Track . . .

Outdoor Track – 1971

This year was no exception. The track team coached by Brother Fintan Curran and his assistant Brother Steven Comeau combined outstanding individual performances with great depth, to emerge with a 9-1 record.

In the 880-yard run, District III champ Chris Keenan finished his second consecutive undefeated spring season, setting not only the school, but also the District III Class A record of 1:58.7. Following Chris were two consistent scorers – Jim Bagley and Jim Garvey. The 440 was well represented by co-captain Jim Corrao, Lev Kachadoorian, and Ed Wirtanen. The mile was no slouch either. Steve Dorsey and Jim Power proved to be each other's only competition for the bulk season, both finishing in the low 4:40's. Gerry Foley and Jerry Viscardi were not far behind, constantly racking up more points. The event with the most depth proved to be the 2 mile, with Fran O'Connell, Bob Bertrand, and Mark Webber all under the 10:10 mark. Peter Coz walked away with two records this season – the pole vault (10 feet) and the 120-high hurdles (15.5). In the 180-lows, co-captain Joe Biedrzycki knocked off several firsts with Bob Killoran not far behind. In the 100-yard dash, it was Dave Baril, who along with Lev Kachadoorian, also excelled at the 220. Bob Checola and Gil Markarian vied for the third scoring spot.

Outdoor Track – 1971

In the jumping events, sophomore John Fitzgerald consistently scored in the high jump, long jump and triple jump. Tony Salerno also did well in the long jump until sidelined in mid-season with an ankle injury. In the javelin, Jerry Powers and Don Grubba were high scorers, while Dave Baril and Bernie Flynn led the way in the spot shotput and discus.

The varsity relay team composed of Steve Morris, Joe Biedrzycki, Jim Corrao and Chris Keenan went undefeated, setting the school record of 1:35.5 on the way. Managers Vic Kruczynski, Pat Mahoney and Jim McGrail also did another fine job.

The S.J. Crew, under first year coach Bro. Edward Rice C.F.X. experienced a fairly successful season.

On October 25, 1970, the crew competed in the sixth annual Head of the Charles Regatta. The Crew, rowing in the Junior Eights division, finished a respectable 14th out of 33 crews racing over the three-mile course.

Over the winter months, the members of the crew took part in extensive weight-lifting and running programs to prepare for the spring season.

On April 17th, the varsity crew defeated Middletown High School by over two lengths in a one mile race. Rowing on the first boat were; cox — Paul Harrington '71, stroke, co-captain — Peter Simone '71, No. 7 — Paul Bennet '72, No. 6 — co-captain — Thomas Farrey '71, No. 5 — Peter Osgood, '71, No. 2 — Raymond Reil '71, bow — Robert Maloney '72.

The crew's next race was against Exeter Academy, at Exeter. Here, the 1st crew lost a close race to a tough Exeter Crew. S. J. was clocked in 4:44 compared with Exeter's 4:41.5. The Junior Varsity Race was won by Exeter, beating the second crew by two lengths.

On April 27th, the 1st crew faced the B.U. freshman. The body of the race over the one mile course was nip and tuck, but at the end the B.U. boat pulled ahead to win by nearly one length.

On April 30th, St. John's won it's sixth consecutive Quinsigamond Cup Regatta, defeating six other crews. Rowing with a slight tailwind, the Pioneers were clocked in 5:15, ahead of second place East Lime High School whose time was 5:24. Finishing third was Shrewsbury, followed by Valley Regional, Springfield Tech, Middletown, Conn., and Springfield Classical.

The 2nd crew won it's 4th straight Quinsigamond cup defeating it's nearest contenders by two lengths. Rowing for the Junior Varsity boat were; cox — James Lauring '74, stroke — Peter Foley '72, No. 7 Norman McCanty '72, No. 6 — Mark McCarthy '72, No. 5 — Michael Sereti '73, No. 4 — Robert Reidy '74, No. 3 — David Samara '72, No. 2 — Robert Poreda '72, bow — James Griffin '73.

S.J. next faced the Crews from Tabor Academy. Racing over a one mile course on Sippican Bay, off the coast of Marion Mass., Saint John's was beaten by one length. The Junior Varsity Race was also won by Tabor.

The next and final race of the Season was the Twenty-Fifth New England Interscholastic Rowing Association Championship. It was held on Lake Quinsigamond on May 22.

In the morning qualifying heat, S.J. finished fourth, only three seconds behind first-place Kent, and right on the tails of both Andover and Mt. Hermon. In the final, however, Mt. Hermon was the upset winner, followed by St. Pauls, Kent, Tabor, and St. John's.

Ace Pioneer sculler Robert Raslavsky (New England Champ — in 1969) had a very successful season. May 15th, he rowed in the Stokesbury Cup regatta in Philadelphia, Pa., and he finished 3rd in some very tough competition. On May 22nd he competed in the Schoolboy Nationals, held at Syracuse N.Y. Here he finished second, close behind the national schoolboy champion.

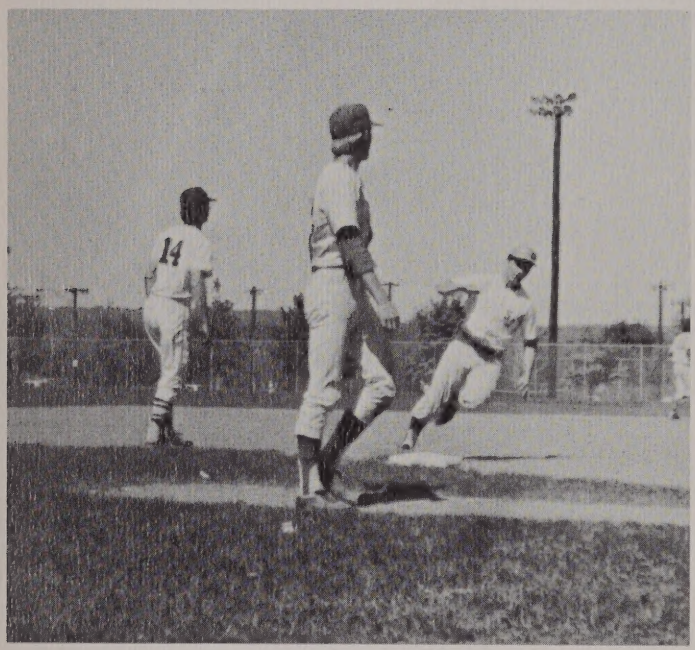
Fearsome Flycatchers

Action



The 1971 St. John's Baseball season was one of ups and downs. Included in this 11-6 yo-yo act were some mountains such as the gem Paul Croteau twirled at St. Mary's of Milford and the hang-tough effort in the first round of the districts, a game in which outfielders flew further than baseballs; as well as some valleys, a Grand Canyon of which was the loss to St. Stephen's. On most roller coasters, however, the hills outnumber the holes . . . so it was with the season.

Coach John Case's Pinstriped Pioneers produced many outstanding individual efforts. In the outfield, Captain Bob Gillis, Charlie Kerbel and soph Tom Shilale were the ones responsible for running after sliders that didn't slide, knuckle balls that didn't knuckle, palm balls that slipped and fast balls that weren't. Burned in the memory is Kerbel's miraculous Great Speckled Bird flight over the fence in the districts which resulted in one of the greatest catches since Jonah caught the whale, it was also more successful than that one. The way he went over the wall, Charlie'd be a gas in Berlin.

In the infield, Bill Barrett, Mike Masterson, Ed Savage, Bob DeFlavio and company were the ones on the receiving end of the line shots called "frozen ropes" by sports writers and more colorful things by pitchers. They were an ironclad first line of defense.

The arms of the club hung on the persons of Rich Surrette and Paul Croteau. The frozen ropes and flying outfielders were non-existent most of the time as the hurlers gutted their way to a solid record.

"Say It Ain't So, John!"

Last of all, we have the coach not because that's the correct order but rather because most of the time the coach is mentioned last. It's a journalistic tradition probably dating back to the Trojan War when some press-box whiz kid left out Achilles' name in his Greek summary and had to tack it on to the end or catch a spear for his forgetfulness. Anyway, Mr. Case has long been overlooked by our contemporary press whiz kids as one of the finest mentors in these parts. His teams always feature the savvy, poise and the desire to be the type of competitors who are known in an even older journalistic tradition as winners. They are not flashy; they merely do the job by making the plays at the right times in the manner they were taught to do it. You can't ask more of a coach. John Case has the ability to instill this, this sort of pride that makes outfielders jump fences in a single bound and makes pitchers throw smokebombs which travel faster than a speeding bullet. It doesn't, Mr. Case knows, take supermen to make valleys into mountains, just takes a bunch of guys who do super things.

Golf 1971

The 1971 edition of the St. Johns Golf Team had a year of ups and downs in which it lost The Catholic Conference championship by ½ game. Hurt by the loss of last years State Champion Gerry Taylor and by 3 losses in their first five matches, they managed to make a brilliant run for the Crown. Led by lettermen Jim Taylor and Kenny Sullivan along with the famous Clinton duo of Co-Captain Bob Schreiner and Gary Sowa, the team provided much entertainment on the links. Also instrumental in their season, turning in many good scores were Juniors Bob Cornacchioli, Larry Brown, and John Barbato. This trio, along with sophomore John Hanlon is sure to be a fine basis for next years squad.

Dedication

In dedicating this yearbook to Jesus Christ, we do not feel that we have been exclusive. We believe that we have not dedicated it to one man, but rather to many people . . . people who are Christians.

Jesus was a man – a man who was frustrated, rejected, admired, loved and murdered. He experienced the emotions that we all feel and the actions which we all perform and watch others perform. We believe that Jesus is with us now, not only in the person of Jesus, but also in the people we have encountered during our stay at St. John's.

For this reason, we have selected some members of the faculty of St. John's as examples of people who in some way brought Christ to the students of St. John's. We are not trying to stereo-type Christ, but, rather, we are trying to show that He is alive today. And He is alive . . . all one has to do is look at the people around us who have taken the time and energy to help us to live, even though at times we have not agreed with them. Christ is alive in all people who are trying to live and to help others live as well.

Brother Thomas Fahey

When one speaks of a rejected, misunderstood person, Brother Fahey comes to mind. Many students fail to look beyond his job and into his person. Brother is a warm man who tries to help students; even though those students sometimes see him as an office, rather than a man whose whole life is centered on Christ. We hope that future students will be open enough to accept a man who tries to love them.

Brother Flavian

Brother Flavian didn't teach any graded courses this year. However, he taught a course that many find difficult to follow, let alone teach, that being the course of a Christian life. Some people do this for a time, but Brother has been doing it for a lifetime. This year, he celebrated his 75th anniversary as a Xaverian Brother. Even at his age, he has not retired. No matter what the weather is, one can always look out the window and see him at work in the yard or the garden. This is his contribution to the community – his life – who could ask for more.

Mr. Timothy McCaffery

Mr. McCaffery was different than most of the teachers at St. John's; not only in the length of his hair and mustache, but also in his life-style. He isn't tied down to the way of life that so many people fall into. Mr. McCaffery is leaving the school this year but, hopefully, he will live on in the easy-going yet concerned life-style which we hope he instilled in the students that he reached. Wherever he goes next year, we hope that his love for life itself will never diminish.

Mr. Richard Doyle

Mr. Doyle is the kind of man who brings a positive force into the life of anyone he meets just by bringing himself. The force is the Christian love he conveys and exemplifies to the individual. Even when he is frustrated or rejected in his efforts to give of his time, his energy or himself, Mr. Doyle keeps right on giving. Christ gave of his life this way, so does Mr. Doyle . . . somehow, equating the two doesn't seem too outlandish.

Brother Kevin McLean

Brother Kevin leaves St. John's physically but not spiritually. He lives in our memory because it's difficult to forget four years' experience with a man on whom we could always count for a smile, for advice, and for help. Brother Kevin brings Christ to students in many ways; his work in the Encounter program; his teaching . . . and his life. In a world where many people are caught up in materialism, it's relieving to see someone who is detached from it. Brother McLean shows people that life is good and they should share its happiness as he does.

Mr. Robert Moynagh

Mr. Moynagh is a rare man, a man of sensitivity yet one of forcefulness as well. As a teacher he brought more than words and books into a classroom. He brings with him, a feeling, an atmosphere that teaching and studying is a vibrant, living experience, and not just a job. As a man, he is also a rarity. If he is against you, he lets you know it to your face; if he is behind you, it is a one hundred percent backing. For these reasons, we are able to see Christ in him and to use his life as a model for our own.

Brother J. Conal Owens

Brother Conal has the difficult task of running the school, a job not envied by anyone. In this day and age, to become part of an institution means almost certain rejection. This was Brother Conal's fate with many students. He tries to go out and in his own way show students that life isn't always what we want. Brother Conal's lesson is that, even though life can't always proceed in the fashion we might wish, we still must go on living that life in Christ . . . as he does.

Mr. Charles Bibaud

In only one year at St. John's, Mr. Bibaud has earned the respect and admiration of not only the faculty but also of the entire student body. He gave us a fine example of how to be a leader in the community, rather than just a follower. In times of personal hardship and tragedy, he showed how a man should act. In all his undertakings, he goes first-class because that's the type of man he is. From Assumption, he brought a feeling of togetherness and a winning tradition, things we know he will carry on. He will remain at St. John's as he will remain in our memories, as a brighter part of senior year.

Wherever I go I see you people
I see you people just like me
And whatever I do I want to do
And the Pooh and you and me together make three

Let's go together
Let's go together
Wave goodbye to St. John's
Say hello to the garden

You know I see – I see the way you feel
And I know that your life is real
Pioneer Searcher Refugee
I follow you and you follow me

Let's go together
Let's go together
Right now

We come and go like a comet
We are wanderers
Are you anymore
This land is green and you make it grow
And you've got to let go
Mankind gone from the cage
All the years gone from your age

At first
I was iridescent
Then
I became transparent
Finally
I was absent
